BDP INTERNATIONAL, INC.,

Plaintiff,

BDP INTERNATIONAL ENTERPRISES
INC. and BRANDON PENNINGTON

Defendants.

No. 17-3308

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff BDP International, Inc. (“BDP International” or “Plaintiff”), by and through its attorneys, Fox Rothschild LLP, brings this action against Defendants BDP International Enterprises Inc. (“BDP Enterprises”) and Brandon Pennington (“Pennington”) (collectively “Defendants”) and states and alleges as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Plaintiff is a Philadelphia-based global entity offering high quality business consultation and management services in the transportation, shipping and logistics fields for over forty years under the BDP and BDP INTERNATIONAL brand names. As a result of the billions of dollars in revenue earned from services rendered and the goodwill generated in the transportation, shipping and logistics industries, the BDP brands are highly valued trademarks of Plaintiff, and the subject of Federal Trademark Registrations for the marks BDP and BDP INTERNATIONAL, INC. (the “BDP Marks”). Plaintiff recently learned that Defendants have begun the unauthorized sale/rendering and/or offer for sale of similar and/or competing services bearing the names BDP and BDP INTERNATIONAL ENTERPRISES INC. via an online establishment at www.bdpinternationalenterprises.com, with offices located in this District. This unauthorized and unlawful use of these names will create or likely create confusion and mistake among customers and clients in the industry. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks judicial intervention to stop the Defendants' unauthorized and unlawful use of these infringing names.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1121(a), this Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over this action as it arises under U.S.C. Title 15, Chapter 22 ("Lanham Act"), and involves Defendants' infringement of the federally registered and common law trademarks owned by Plaintiff, and Defendants' false designation of origin under 15 U.S.C. §1125(a).

3. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338, this Court has original jurisdiction over claims asserted under the Lanham Act, as these claims arise under the federal laws of the United States. Additionally, this Court has supplemental jurisdiction over all other claims not asserted under the Lanham Act pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1337(a), as these claims are related to claims within the Court's original jurisdiction.

4. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because: (1) Defendants transact and solicit business in this District; (2) Defendant BDP Enterprises is an Illinois corporation registered to do business in this District; (3) Defendant Pennington is a resident of the State of Illinois with an address within this District; and (4) Defendants sell/render and/or offer for sale, within or without this State, services that infringe Plaintiff's trademarks expecting their acts to have consequences in this District.

5. Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b), and 1391(c) in that Defendants reside in or can be found in this District, the claims arose in this District, and the Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this District.

THE PARTIES

8. Defendant Brandon Pennington is, upon information and belief, an Illinois resident, having an address at P.O. Box 358, Bloomingdale, Illinois 60108.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CLAIMS

Plaintiff's Business

9. Since at least as early as 1972, Plaintiff has provided a broad variety of services in the United States and internationally. Plaintiff's wholly owned operations, joint ventures and/or affiliates are located in 140 countries spanning more than 270 offices.

10. Plaintiff offers a full range of business services in the transport, shipping and logistics fields, import-export logistics, regulatory/trade compliance, customs clearance, warehousing and distribution, process improvement, supply chain optimization and many consulting, informational and operation-related services related to the foregoing (the "BDP International Services").

11. Plaintiff renders services to customers/clients across all industries, public and private, some being the largest US and worldwide corporations offering consumer products, textiles, pharmaceuticals, chemical, oil and gas.

12. Since first opening in 1972, Plaintiff has grown in size, now employing over 1400 people in North America, with over two dozen locations in the United States, including an office within this District located in Bensenville, Illinois. See <https://www.bdpinternational.com/global-locations/global-locator/>.

13. Since first adoption, the BDP brand has consistently stood for high quality and dependable services in the shipping/transportation logistics industries. Plaintiff has experienced a tremendous amount of growth over the past four decades, resulting in excess of $100 million in revenue annually in the United States, with over $500,000 spent on marketing and advertising annually.

14. BDP-branded services are advertised, marketed, and rendered throughout the United States and within this District.

15. The BDP International Services are also advertised and marketed via Plaintiff's online website located at www.bdpinternational.com wherein the company, its service offerings, and its locations are also identified (the "BDP International Website").

16. As a result of Plaintiff's quality-driven service offerings, its expertise and knowledge in the global logistics field and its longtime use of the BDP Marks, the BDP and BDP INTERNATIONAL brands have developed a local, national and international prominence and reputation.

17. Through Plaintiff's continuous and exclusive use of the BDP Marks in the rendering of the BDP International Services, as well as its extensive advertisement/marketing efforts, Plaintiff's BDP Marks have acquired such considerable goodwill that the public has come to associate these marks exclusively with Plaintiff and to believe that the BDP Marks uniquely identify Plaintiff's high quality services.

The BDP Trademark Registrations

18. BDP International, realizing that the value of its BDP brands were significantly tied to its identification with the public and needing to secure protection on a national basis, nearly 20 years ago filed for, and successfully secured, federal trademark registrations for the BDP Marks.

19. Specifically, on May 27, 1998, Plaintiff filed for federal trademark protection of the BDP mark under Section 1(a) of the Trademark Act of 1946, as amended ("Lanham Act"), 15 U.S.C. § 1051(a). The BDP mark was granted registration on the United States Patent and Trademark Office's ("USPTO's") Principal Register on December 21, 1999 as Registration No. 2,301,666 for services described as "management assistance, namely, assisting in management of transportation, warehousing and distribution information and logistics; business consultation in the field of supply chain process analysis; management assistance, namely, determining logistics of construction projects" and "transport brokerage, namely, transport brokerage, namely, custom house brokerage and freight forwarding services; surface and air freight transportation services, transportation of goods by ocean, rail, truck and air" and "reviewing standards and practices to assure compliance with import and export laws and regulations."

20. The foregoing Registration remains in good standing, due to the November 30, 2009 filing and December 3, 2009 acceptance of a combined Declaration of Continued Use and Renewal of Registration (for 10 Years) with the USPTO. As such, this mark is valid, subsisting and incontestable. True and correct copies of U.S. Registration No. 2,301,666 for BDP and the Notice of Acceptance of Renewal are attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

21. Plaintiff is also the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No. 2,295,420 for the trademark “BDP INTERNATIONAL, INC.” covering services described as “management assistance, namely, assisting in the management of transportation, warehousing and distribution information and logistics, and determining logistics of construction projects; and business consultation in the field of supply chain process analysis” and “transport brokerage, namely, custom house brokerage; freight forwarding services; surface and air freight transportation services; and transportation of goods by ocean, rail, truck, and air” and “reviewing standards and practices to assure compliance with import and export laws and regulations,” registered on the USPTO Principal Register on November 30, 1999.

22. The foregoing Registration remains in good standing, due to the November 30, 2009 filing and December 3, 2009 acceptance of a combined Declaration of Continued Use and Registration (for 10 Years) with the USPTO. As such, the BDP INTERNATIONAL, INC. mark is valid, subsisting and incontestable. True and correct copies of U.S. Registration No. 2,295,420 for BDP INTERNATIONAL, INC. and the Notice of Acceptance of Renewal are attached hereto as Exhibit 2. The BDP and BDP INTERNATIONAL, INC. Trademark Registrations are hereinafter referred to as the “BDP Registrations.”

Defendants’ Competing Services

23. Upon information and belief, Defendant BDP Enterprises is an Illinois Corporation formed in April 2016, by its purported owner, Defendant Pennington.

24. Upon information and belief, Defendant Pennington is also the registrant and purported owner of the domain name www.bdpinternationalenterprises.com (the “BDP Enterprises Domain Name”).

25. Upon information and belief, Defendants are the owners of the bdpinternationalenterprises.com domain name (the “BDP Enterprises Website”).

26. Content hosted on the BDP Enterprises Website features, in large, prominent, bold, letters across the top, the wording BDP followed by the wording INTERNATIONAL ENTERPRISES, INC. in smaller faded font as set forth below.

27. Defendants’ BDP Enterprises Website promotes four categories of service offerings: strategic planning; risk management; expert analysis (including supply chain management and employee compensation); and industry best practices (including manufacturing and service industries).

28. Upon information and belief, Defendants began offering and/or rendering the foregoing services in the United States, in the State of Illinois, and within this District, branded as BDP and/or BDP INTERNATIONAL ENTERPRISES, INC. in 2016, wherein the services are marketed to customers/clients directly via the BDP Enterprises Website.

Defendants’ Infringement of Plaintiff’s Registered Trademarks

29. From 1972 until the present, Plaintiff BDP International has enjoyed significant success and acclaim, in the promotion and sale/rendering of its BDP International Services. The BDP International Services are offered/promoted via the BDP International Website and rendered by Plaintiff and/or its wholly owned subsidiaries and affiliates under the BDP and BDP INTERNATIONAL, INC. trademarks across the United States and in over 140 countries worldwide.

30. Despite such use and accompanying federal trademark registrations, with both actual and constructive knowledge of Plaintiff's BDP Marks and BDP Registrations, in April 2016, Defendant Pennington formed and incorporated a legal entity in the State of Illinois under the name BDP International Enterprises Inc.

31. Subsequently, with both actual and constructive knowledge of Plaintiff's BDP Marks and BDP Registrations, in May 2016, Defendant Pennington personally registered the domain name www.bdpinternationalenterprises.com via domain name registrar GoDaddy.com, LLC.

32. Upon information and belief, shortly thereafter, with both actual and constructive knowledge of Plaintiff's BDP Marks and BDP Registrations, Defendants launched the BDP Enterprises Website hosted at the BDP Enterprises Domain Name.

33. Today both BDP International and BDP Enterprises employ identical BDP names/trademarks, appearing at the BDP International Website and the BDP Enterprises Website. Representative samples of the trademarks in use on the respective websites appear below:

34. Defendants' BDP INTERNATIONAL ENTERPRISES name and bdpinternationalenterprises.com domain name fully incorporate Plaintiff's registered BDP and BDP INTERNATIONAL trademarks.

35. The BDP Enterprises Website promotes service offerings listed as "expert analysis" of "supply chain management."

36. The BDP Registrations cover services identified as "business consultation in the field of supply chain process analysis."

37. Plaintiff promotes these same services via the BDP International Website, at <https://www.bdpinternational.com/services/lead-logistics-provider/>, specifically:

There is no substitute for a logistics partner with a proven track record. The right industry expertise. The commitment to provide exceptional value and service. To help you meet the increasing complexity and challenges within your supply chain.

Complete visibility of every step in your supply chain. Industry leading transportation management tools ensure complete control, visibility and transparency of all your shipments.

38. The foregoing services identified in the BDP International Registrations and on the BDP International Website are identical to those services identified on the BDP Enterprises Website.

39. Upon information and belief, Defendants' BDP Enterprises business is purportedly located in Bloomingdale, Illinois, with an address at PO Box 358, Bloomingdale, Illinois, while Plaintiff maintains offices in the neighboring town of Bensenville at 855 Busse Road, Bensenville, Illinois—just over eight (8) miles away and thus, marketing to, and visible to customers in the same geographic territory.

40. In addition to the proximity of geographic locations identified herein, Defendants BDP Enterprises and Plaintiff offer and market their competing services on websites appearing at nearly identical domain names: www.bdpinternational.com (Plaintiff) and www.bdpinternationalenterprises.com (Defendants).

41. Both Plaintiff's and Defendants' supply chain analysis services are marketed to the same type of customers, looking for valuable and creative solutions to improve supply chain processes.

42. Defendants' use of the BDP INTERNATIONAL wording is confusingly similar to Plaintiff's BDP International Marks, as Defendants offer identical and/or related supply chain services, offered for sale without Plaintiff's authorization or authorization from any other person or entity authorized to grant such permission.

43. Defendants' use of the BDP INTERNATIONAL name is confusingly similar to Plaintiff's BDP Marks, and is likely to cause consumers to believe that Plaintiff's and Defendants' services originate from the same source or are somehow related, or that Plaintiff is licensing, endorsing, authorizing, sponsoring or is in some way associated with Defendants' activities.

44. Defendants' use of names that are confusingly similar to Plaintiff's BDP Marks will adversely interfere and continue to adversely interfere with Plaintiff's efforts to market and advertise the BDP branded goods in this District.

45. Defendants are capitalizing on Plaintiff's well-known goodwill and reputation to enhance the promotion and sales of their own goods for commercial purposes and financial gain.

46. Plaintiff has been and continues to be injured by Defendants' unlawful acts within the State of Illinois and within this District.

47. Defendants acted with actual and constructive notice of the BDP Registrations and of Plaintiff's extensive and continuous use of the BDP Marks well prior to its adoption of the competing BDP INTERNATIONAL ENTERPRISES, INC., name/mark in association with supply chain analysis and related services.

48. In fact, in addition to constructive notice of the BDP Registrations, as registered with the United States Patent and Trademark Office, on March 16, 2017, Plaintiff sent a demand letter to Defendant BDP Enterprises, requesting cessation of all use of the BDP and BDP INTERNATIONAL names.

49. In response, Defendants have resorted to public protestations on their website, erroneous explanations of trademark law, and an acknowledgment of confusion by such statements posted on their website, including:

We do not intentionally mean to confuse you or anyone else with a different and distinguished business name that is registered with their local state of authority. It is your responsibility to distinguish business names. More importantly, BDP INTERNATIONAL ENTERPRISES, INC. is not responsible for your confusion of the names of businesses' or your decision(s) based on your confusion.

A true and correct copy of the BDP Enterprises Website page at <http://www.bdpinternationalenterprises.com/complaint-publication-03-17-2017-06-35-55.html> is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

50. Despite both actual and constructive knowledge of Plaintiff's BDP Marks and BDP Registrations, on March 20, 2017, and in response to Plaintiff's demand letter of March 16, 2017, Defendants have announced an intent to further expand their use of the infringing BDP

Enterprises names via the launch of a private business and vocational school within this District. Specifically:

We are announcing that we are currently planning to open a Private Business and Vocational School in Bloomingdale, IL 60108. This private university will study current issues of Chicago and Aerospace Engineering and Transportation with the help of BDP INTERNATIONAL ENTERPRISES, INC. This future institution will be the cutting edge to learning and education! Please donate to our cause via the following link at GoFundMe.

A true and correct copy of the BDP Enterprises Website page at <http://www.bdpinternationalenterprises.com/plans-to-open-pbvs-in-bloomingdale--il-14-28-01.html> is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

51. Thus, Defendants performed the acts complained of herein (both before and after contact by Plaintiff) willfully and with knowledge of the infringement they would cause, and with intent to cause confusion, mistake, or deception, and to appropriate and unfairly trade upon Plaintiff's extensive reputation and goodwill in the BDP Marks.
